

Unique Hotels Group Earns Double Recognition in Falstaff's Nordic Hotel Guide 2025

Tallinn, Estonia – June 4, 2025 – Unique Hotels Group is proud to announce that two of its distinguished properties, Vihula Manor Country Club & Spa and the von Stackelberg Hotel Tallinn, have been named among Estonia's finest hotels in the first-ever Falstaff Nordic Hotel Guide 2025.

On May 19, 2025, Falstaff officially announced its first-ever Nordic Hotel Guide, recommending 60 of Estonia's best hotels — a resounding endorsement for a country that continues to impress with its culinary diversity, cultural richness, and high accommodation standards. The inclusion of both Vihula Manor and von Stackelberg Hotel affirms Unique Hotels Group's dedication to crafting memorable experiences that reflect the best of Estonian heritage and modern comfort.

Vihula Manor Country Club & SPA

Vihula Manor, located in Lahemaa National Park, received an impressive score of 85/100, highlighting its status as a serene countryside escape. Housed in a meticulously restored 13th-century estate, the manor offers timeless charm, eco-luxury, and a deep connection to nature.

Von Stackelberg Hotel Tallinn

Meanwhile, von Stackelberg Hotel Tallinn, which earned a strong score of 83/100, presents a refined urban retreat at the edge of the Old Town, combining historic character with stylish interiors and thoughtful amenities.

"We are honored to have not just one, but two of our hotels recognized in this inaugural edition of the Falstaff Nordic Guide," said Ingrid Sepp, Marketing Manager of Unique Hotels Group. "It's a proud moment for our team and a meaningful recognition of the experiences we strive to create."

The Falstaff Nordic Hotel Guide 2025 sets a new benchmark for discerning travelers seeking quality and authenticity across the region. Unique Hotels Group's dual listing reinforces its role as a leader in boutique and heritage hospitality.
